

My Introduction, Education and Life Experiences

1. Personal Introduction

My name is Ikram Ullah. I was born on January 2, 2004, in a small village called Spin in Wana, South Waziristan, KPK.

2. Childhood and Early Life

I spent my childhood in South Waziristan from approximately 2004 to 2017.

3. Travel and Places I Have Lived in Pakistan

In 2018, I went to Peshawar for about two months. After that, I returned to my village.

After that, I moved to Bannu for my FSc education. I spent approximately 2019, 2020, and 2021 in Bannu.

After Bannu, I went to Peshawar again. From Peshawar, I went to Charsadda. After Charsadda, I came to Multan, then I travelled to Karachi in 2022, After that I came to Lahore.

4. Timeline of My Travels

2004–2017: South Waziristan — I spent my childhood there.

2018: Peshawar — I stayed there for about two months and then returned to my local area.

2019–2021: Bannu — I lived there for my FSc education.

After 2021: Peshawar.

After Peshawar: Charsadda.

After Charsadda: Multan.

After Multan: Karachi.

2022: Islamabad — I visited Islamabad.

2022: Lahore — I moved to Lahore while I was studying in college.

September 2023: I got admission to UMT Lahore for BS Artificial Intelligence.

Since 2023: I have been living in Lahore and continuing my university education.

2025: I visited Islamabad again.

5. Current Residence and Education

Since getting admission to the University of Management and Technology (UMT), Lahore, in September 2023, I have been living in Lahore and continuing my BS Artificial Intelligence education.